It's a Shame, It's a Crime ©2008 Dan Scanlan

C
It's a shame it's a crime they should all be doing time
FGC
It's a shame it's a crime they should all be doing time.

C
They're stealing from your grandchildren, your great grandchildren, too

FGC
They're stealing from your cousin, Hell, they're stealing from you.

They're stealing from the plumber And robbing the corner store

FGC

They're stealing from the homeless, they're rotten to the core

They're stealing from your embryo and the kids that it might bear

F
G
C
They're stealing grandpa's nest egg, they're robbing the cupboard bare

They're sneaking the last sip of the last cold glass of beer F G C

And sneaking all the chips In their poker game of fear

C
The dollar that they loan you, it isn't even fact

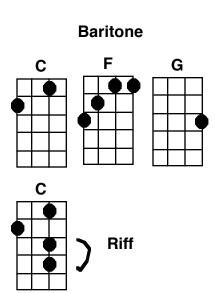

FGC

But they'll throw you in the street if you don't pay it back.

C
They're stealing your decisions and filling you with lies
FGC
They're sending off your children to a war that never dies

C Impeachment isn't good enough for their evil plague F G C They should be in shackles, kneeling at The Hague.

Ukulele C F G

RIFF:

